ITEMS OF INCOME TO BE SURRENDERED TO THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT

*285. [78] Sri. N. V. Chacko: Will the Hon'ble Minister for Finance and Revenue be pleased to state.—

(a) whether there is any new proposal for any important item of income of the State being given up to the Central Government;

(b) if so, how and to what extent that would affect our financial position and stability; and

(c) whether the Central Government would be bearing any additional share of our expenses or burdens as a result of their asking for a large share of our incomes?

Minister for Finance and Revenue (Sri. A. J. John):

(a) No.

(b) and (c) Do not arise in view of the answer to (a).

ANCHAL SAVINGS BANK

*286. (79) Sri. N. V. Chacko: Will the Hon'ble Minister for Finance and Revenue be pleased to state.—

(a) whether our Anchal Savings Bank account and the amounts under such account will be transferred to the Central Govenment as a result of the Central Government assuming the administration of the Anchal Department; and

(b) whether we have got the amounts covered by our Anchal Savings Bank account rearmarked or easily available to be transferred to the Central Government in case of necessity?

Minister for Finance and Revenue (Sri. A. J. John):

(a) and (b) The Ancahal Department has not yet been amalgamated with the Indian Post and Telegraphs Department. When they are amalgamated, the Anchal Savings Bank may be taken over by the Government of India and administered in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Central Government. The outstanding liability to the depositors will be treated by the Government of India as an advance to the State at the average rate of interest at which it was borrowed. Final decisions on these points have not yet been reached.
